

City Portrait Brunswick

Brunswick, the city of Henry the Lion, is grown in more than 1000 years. History is still alive. In contrast you find modern buildings representing the architecture of the 21st Century.

Enter the large and car free pedestrian zones, covered by malls with attractive shops and elegant boutiques, to stroll. The magnificent green areas of the city, the Botanical Garden and the extensive recreational areas invite you to relax and to slow down.

Brunswick, with about 240.000 inhabitants, is the largest city in southeast Lower Saxony, and the cultural and economic center of the region. A vibrant, interesting and varying city is inviting you with its extensive pedestrian areas for a walk through.

The traditional "Five Islands" and various other attractions are awaiting you. Enjoy the charming and picturesque scenery of the city.

Use bus M 16 to get into the city.
Departure from Watenbüttel "Am Grasplatz"
